Family Justice Center's annual Health Fair event features music, food entertainment and fun for all ages

SOLANO COUNTY – The Solano County District Attorney's Office and the Family Justice Center, in partnership with Solano Health and Social Services, will host the third annual Health Fair event on Saturday, October 7 on the Annex Lawn at 604 Empire Street in Fairfield from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Everyone is welcome at this free family event, established to promote healthy living in Solano County. The event includes more than 90 local vendors and boasts a wide variety of activities for people of all ages, including free flu shots, medical, dental and vision screenings, free immunizations, tasty treats, music, Zumba and martial arts demonstrations, tap dancing, pumpkin decorating, bouncy house, arts and crafts, health and wellness business vendors, face painting, public safety vehicle demonstrations, raffle prizes and much more.

"Join us as we come together to celebrate healthy living in Solano County," said Solano County District Attorney Krishna Abrams. "With so many family-friendly activities, there will be something for everyone."

For a complete list of activities, including the more than 90 local health and wellness vendors that will be participating in the third annual Health Fair event, visit www.SolanoCounty.com/Depts/DA and click on "Health Fair" or call the Family Justice Center at (707) 784-7635.

Located at 604 Empire Street in Fairfield, the Family Justice Center offers victims of domestic violence, child abuse, sexual assault and elder abuse, an opportunity to build hope and a new future.

See you at the Health Fair!
