PRESS RELEASE

Release Date: April 20, 2018

Re: People v. Curtis Reese

On April 18, 2018, in Department 11 of the Solano County Superior Court, before the Honorable William Pendergast, a jury found the defendant, Curtis Reese, Guilty of Battery in violation of Penal Code Section 242.

Victim and the defendant lived together for about six months. On July 9, 2017, the victim returned home and had a discussion with the defendant. At some point, the victim faced away and defendant suddenly punched her in the arm so hard that she fell over into a box of dishes. The defendant threatened her and demanded that she leave the house. The victim left the house and called the police.

The court imposed the following sentence, three years probation and 10 days in the county jail.

Vallejo Police Department Officers B. Phillips and J. Callinan investigated the case. The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Sun Seo.
