LABOR ASSOCIATION PROPOSAL #8

Chief District Attorney Investigator

Bargaining Unit Representation

This will confirm an understanding reached between the County of Solano (hereafter referred to as the "County") and the Law Enforcement Management Association (hereafter referred to as the "Association"), representing Units 17 and 18. Collectively, County and Association are hereafter referred to as "the parties."

The parties agree that Chief District Attorney Investigator classification, a peace officer as defined in California Penal Code Chapter 4.5, Section 830.1(a), shall be moved from Unit 17 to Unit 18, comprised of Deputy Sheriff management classifications (Captain-Sheriff and Lieutenant-Sheriff) duly authorized by the same legal authority.

Retirement

The parties agree that upon relocation of the Chief District Attorney Investigator to Unit 18, the County acknowledges they are represented in a Deputy Sheriffs' bargaining unit as described in California Government Code 20432.6(a) and shall seek to honor the approved Board of Supervisors agenda submittal #26 dated November 7, 2006, providing 3% @ 50 retirement formula for the Chief District Attorney Investigator.
